Description

Antique Meissen Porcelain Footed Comport Cake Stands Set of Three, a unique serie of three 19th c. Meissen hand painted gilded and polychrome porcelain bombonnières - fruit compotes footed bowls, in good conditions. This set of three bowls dates back to 1850s, is hand-painted with flowers, foliage, and racemes in gold on a white and blue background. The bowl is decorated in polychrome, divided into sections with figures, gallant scenes, and highly detailed landscapes alternating with sections painted in blue. The whole is framed by a multi-lobed, scalloped border decorated with floral motifs in gold on white. It rests on a circular foot that repeats the same polychrome decoration in blue and gold with polychrome painted flowers and miniatures with figures and landscapes. This set of three
