Description

A stoneware terrine decorated with a hare on the lid, made by Chantal and Thierry Robert in Poncé-sur-Loir. Based in Poncé-sur-Loir, potters Chantal and Thierry Robert produced utilitarian and decorative stoneware pieces from the 1960s to the 1990s. Their works are all unique, their artisanal and handcrafted work resulting in a variety of shapes and glazes. Chantal and Thierry Robert's stoneware is characterized by attractive modeling and an irregular mottled glaze on grey-beige backgrounds. Good condition.
