Description

This beautiful Dresden porcelain cup is in perfect condition. It was hand-painted and embellished with fine gold, circa 1860-1880. Helena Wolfsohn was a porcelain decorator working in Dresden in the 19th century. Her style is strongly inspired by the Meissen porcelain tradition of the 18th century and by Romantic artists such as Watteau. A second cup from the same provenance is currently for sale (last photo). Cup height: 7.5 cm. Saucer dimensions: 14.3 x 12.5 cm. Shipping with invoice, fast, careful, and very secure.
