Description

This beautiful and unusual piece of jewelry features a large feline claw mounted in a silver setting adorned with applied gold scrolls and set with a rectangular green stone (peridot or beryl). It is crowned with a gold gallery of seven baroque pearls on stems. The pin has a tube hinge and a C-shaped clasp (an older replacement), and a white metal pin, all in perfect working order. It shows patina and wear consistent with its age. Unmarked, but tested with a touchstone: 18-karat silver and gold. EXCELLENT CONDITION! Napoleon III period, circa 1870. Dimensions: 3.6 cm x 3.2 cm. Weight: 7 g
