Description

A beautiful charcoal drawing by the Liège artist Fernand Thomson. Trained as an engineer, Fernand Thomson harbored a true passion for drawing and painting. A Liège native at heart, he remained a lifelong student, cultivating his rebellious and playful spirit. Fernand Thomson and his favorite subjects. A prolific and little-known body of work, to which the Regional Archives pay tribute through this publication. A complete artist, Fernand Thomson created caricatures, drawings, watercolors, and paintings. His sketchbooks and studies reveal his deep affection for the animal world.
