Description

A superb Art Nouveau wall mirror with a wooden frame, richly adorned with a natural patinated bronze front and transparent blue glass panels decorated with floral and plant motifs. The elegant composition, with its curved lines and nature-inspired ornamentation, is characteristic of the Art Nouveau movement of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The openwork pediment and finely crafted decoration give this mirror a striking decorative presence. The central oval mirror is well-preserved, providing a beautiful lighting effect. The whole piece displays an authentic patina, respecting its original character.
