Description

Louis-Philippe Cherrywood Display Bookcase - 19th Century. A beautiful period Louis-Philippe display bookcase in solid cherrywood, a French piece from the 19th century. It opens with two glass doors revealing three interior shelves, and with two solid panels at the bottom offering additional storage. It features a lovely molded cornice and clean, balanced lines, characteristic of the Louis-Philippe style. The interior and shelves are solid wood. It has a beautiful warm patina and is an elegant and timeless piece. In good overall condition, with no major restoration; the doors and locks are functional.
