Description

Two Louis-Philippe mahogany armchairs - 19th century. Two Louis-Philippe period armchairs in solid mahogany, French work from the 19th century. These are not a pair, but two identical armchairs, upholstered in the same fabric. They feature carved, violin-shaped backs, scrolled armrests, and cabriole legs. The seats are wide and comfortable. The upholstery, with an Asian motif, is in good condition. The frames are sound, with a beautiful antique patina. Seat height: 44cm. Good overall condition.
