Description

Louis XV style four-door Rennes buffet - 18th century. Important four-door Rennes buffet, Louis XV period, in solid cherry wood, regional work from the Rennes area, 18th century. It opens with four molded and carved doors, decorated with cartouches and rocaille motifs, characteristic of Rennes production. Beautiful, richly crafted, undulating cornice, curved uprights, and cabriole legs. The interior, fitted with shelves and lined with antique fabric, offers ample storage. Antique hardware and keyhole escutcheons. Beautiful warm patina; a characterful piece, representative of 18th-century Breton furniture. Good overall condition.
