Description

This beautiful clock, emblematic of the Empire style and the Restoration period, embodies the elegance and refinement of French horology. Its majestic design, marked by four imposing columns, makes it a flagship piece for lovers of antiques and sophisticated interior design. A preserved artisanal expertise. The cabinet-finished wood case, enhanced by mercury-gilt bronze mounts, reveals exquisitely fine metalwork. Floral and geometric motifs, typical of the period, adorn the dial and columns, adding a touch of luxury and prestige to this work of art. Every detail, from the rosettes to the scrolls, testifies to a heritage of craftsmanship where aesthetics meet mechanical precision. Functionality and history united. This clock, in good condition, is also in good working order. As
