Description

A beautiful statue of the Virgin and Child, created in the 20th century and signed Zenza. The Virgin is depicted seated, holding the Infant Jesus on her lap in an attitude of gentleness and devotion. The Child, delicately leaning against his mother, holds a bunch of grapes, a traditional Eucharistic symbol evoking the sacrifice to come. The Virgin's finely modeled face expresses great serenity, while the Child's is rendered with naturalness and tenderness. The drapery is full and lively, revealing meticulous craftsmanship and a harmonious composition. The polychromy, in deep tones of blue, red, and gold, is enriched with gilded highlights that add relief and brilliance to the whole, while retaining a warm patina. Standing approximately 95 cm tall, this statue has a significant decorative presence, ideal
