

Pair Of Anthropomorphic Ceramic Bottles - Anonymous 20th-century Work

480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Ceramic

Height : 25 cm

Description

A pair of faux bottle-shaped vases in glazed ceramic, hand-modeled, sketches human faces with varied expressions and grotesque features. These anthropomorphic objects are unsigned and without indication of provenance. The deliberately free and slightly asymmetrical forms demonstrate a sculptural approach where volume takes precedence over function. The glaze, applied in nuanced and blended pastel tones, combining greens, pinks, and yellows, creates a subtly vibrant surface, revealing a masterful exploration of color. Although unattributed and undocumented, this set is fully in keeping with the spirit of 20th-century artistic ceramics, probably mid- to late-century, and reflects a genuine artistic sensibility. These pieces, primarily decorative, are intended above all for
