Description

An elegant antique frosted glass ewer, made in France, dating from the late 19th century. The body is crafted from frosted glass, delicately decorated with a floral relief motif made up of applied polychrome glass. The glass is mounted in a finely worked gilt metal frame. The frame features a balanced decorative composition, blending stylized plant elements and eclectic ornamental motifs, characteristic of late 19th-century decorative arts. Dimensions: Height: 30.5 cm
