Description

This beautiful silver-plated serving platter features a refined rocaille design on its lid and rim. Its turned wooden handle provides a perfect grip, while the lid opens with a simple press of the thumb, adding to the practicality of this object, which is as functional as it is decorative. Made by Wilson and Gill in London in the 1930s. Dimensions of the platter without the handle: 25 x 18 cm. A few minor scratches are visible in the photos. Fast and careful shipping.
