Description

Elegant and refined, this verdure tapestry from the prestigious Flanders Manufactory in Oudenaarde delicately illustrates the full extent of 18th-century textile craftsmanship. It presents a charming bucolic landscape where lush vegetation frames a peaceful scene enlivened by birds at the edge of a pond, while in the background, a pastoral architectural scene unfolds, imbued with a sense of poetry. Created using traditional Flemish techniques, this work is distinguished by the fineness of its weave and the subtle harmony of its palette, dominated by shades of blue, cream, and gray. The rich decoration of its floral border enhances the elegance and authentic character of this period piece. Highly sought after for their artistic quality and historical significance, Oudenaarde tapestries
