Description

A Provençal Regency period walnut wardrobe - 18th century. The front opens with two molded and curved doors, finely carved and separated by a decorated central stile. The molded cornice is adorned with scrolls and floral motifs characteristic of the Regency period. The lower section features a single serpentine drawer, resting on cabriole legs, with a richly carved crossbar, typical of Provençal Regency furniture. The interior is fitted with shelves, offering ample storage space. High-quality walnut with an antique patina. An authentic Regency period piece, from Provence, ideal for a lover of characterful antique furniture.
