Description

A rare antique mirror in the late 19th-century Neo-Gothic style, crafted from gilded wood and richly decorated with architectural motifs including trefoil arches, pinnacles, and colonnettes, reminiscent of medieval Gothic aesthetics. The frame features a finely openwork design of scrolls and foliage. The upper section is crowned with an elegant arcaded pediment. Note: a small, old chip on the upper right capital, which does not detract from the overall balance or charm. The antique glass is in good general condition. A very beautiful decorative piece.
