

Japanese Porcelain Fire Pot, Imari (arita), Circa 1830

180 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Japanese porcelain fire pot, Imari (Arita) production, circa 1830. Underglaze cobalt blue painted decoration with stylized floral motifs and scrolls. Cylindrical shape, base outlined with blue lines. Fire pot intended to hold embers or glowing coals, used as a supplementary heat source or for kindling in a domestic setting. Can be used as a cachepot or for other purposes. Height 9 cm, Diameter 10.5 cm. Carefully packaged. Shipping available: France / International. Payment: Bank transfer / Credit card in showroom. *We always reply promptly and thank you for remembering to check your spam folder. Our email address is: antiquitesmm@gmail.com. *If you would like to see this item or others, we would be happy to welcome you to our showroom in Lyon, France.

Dealer

Antiquités MM

Meubles et objets anciens

Mobile : 0633445929

17 Place Maréchal Lyautey

Lyon 69006