Description

An elegant pair of gondola armchairs in solid mahogany, dating from the Empire period, early 19th century. These armchairs feature a wraparound back with clean, balanced lines, characteristic of the Empire style, resting on tapered front legs ending in gilt bronze sabots. The scrolled armrests are adorned with finely crafted, chased bronze rosettes, highlighting the quality of workmanship. The front rail is also embellished with gilt bronze decoration. The upholstery is studded and covered in a fine antique fabric in warm tones that harmonize perfectly with the mahogany patina. In excellent overall condition, with well-patinated wood and present, uniform bronze mounts. Comfortable and sturdy armchairs, showing no signs of restoration. High-quality Parisian craftsmanship, ideal for a
