

Oriental Helmet, Kulha Khud - Ottoman Empire - Turkish - Qajar - Iran - Persia, 19th Century

980 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 21 cm

Height : 60 cm

Description

A beautiful oriental helmet known as a Kulha Khud, used by the Ottoman Empire, the Persians, and the Indo-Persian peoples. The helmet is made of engraved steel, decorated with epigraphic cartouches and medallions, and surmounted by a four-sided spike with a movable nasal guard and steel plume holder. It features chainmail extending down the back and sides of the skull. In good condition, the helmet measures 27 cm in height (to the spike), 60 cm in total height, and 21 cm in diameter.

Dealer

Antiquités Brion Laurent

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 09 90 34 72

Orléans 45000