Description

19th-century brass reliquary containing First-Class relics of Saint Helena--venerated for her discovery of the True Cross--and Saint Sebastian, the early Christian martyr and enduring symbol of faith and courage. The sacred relics are carefully arranged beneath glass and traditionally presented, reflecting the devotional precision and craftsmanship characteristic of 19th-century ecclesiastical objects.At the back of the reliquary, we find an episcopalian wax seal holding the threads together and guaranteeing the authenticity of the holy relic. The seal corresponds precisely with the accompanying documentation, confirming its official ecclesiastical certification.The reliquary is accompanied by its original Certificate of Authenticity (COA), issued and signed by an
