Description

Bronze Kiss of Peace - Burgos, circa 1570 - Model by Bernardino de Napoles. Rare Spanish bronze kiss of peace, cast, chased, and engraved, made in Burgos around 1570, linked to the famous model disseminated by the goldsmith Bernardino de Napoles. This type is documented in Burgos metalwork of the second half of the 16th century and corresponds to a liturgical production widely distributed in the diocese of Burgos. Description: The circular plaque features in its center a recessed medallion adorned with a relief of Christ in profile. The peripheral rim is decorated with alternating cherub heads and circular motifs, highlighted by a frieze in low relief. The perimeter adopts an architectural rhythm, crowned by a finial of a cherub's head. The trapezoidal base supports in its center a cross
