Description

Charming small 18th-century chiffonier table. The piece rests on four tapered, fluted legs ending in brass sabots with brass ferrules. The front opens with three drawers adorned with bronze pull rings. Beautiful geometric marquetry in rosewood, palisander, and walnut. With a re-entrant on all four sides. Original light marble top. Includes a sliding side shelf. Antique French work, with elegant proportions and refined decoration. Very nice general condition, stable furniture, functional drawers, intact marble. Wear and small marks of ageing in line with age. Varnish with buffer.
