central sphere. The set includes nine drawers offering ample storage space, additional shelves, and wardrobe compartments, making it both practical and unique. This bedroom set was carved by one of the most talented artisans of his time. The carving is exceptionally beautiful and refined. This rare and exquisite set comprises five magnificent pieces: a matching chest of drawers with four large drawers adorned with carved handles, a pair of bedside tables also featuring handles, a king-size bed, and a three-door wardrobe. Each piece is richly carved, with details of unparalleled richness and finesse. This authentic antique Bambocci bedroom set, dating from the late 19th century and of Italian origin, has been perfectly preserved. It will bring a touch of elegance to your bedroom. Its relief carvings depict mythical creatures, animals, flowers, foliage, and figures. The magnificent bed is compatible with a 170 cm x 200 cm mattress. Its external dimensions are 220 cm x 185 cm. The headboard is 159 cm high and the footboard 103 cm. The wardrobe is fully disassembled and measures 220 cm high x 236 cm wide x 70 cm deep. It includes three compartments with hanging rails and three storage drawers in the lower section. Two caryatids adorn the sides of the wardrobe, and the doors and the handles of the upper drawers are carved. The chest of drawers has four large drawers with beautiful handles. Its dimensions are 110 cm high x 137 cm wide x 60 cm deep. The bedside tables each have a drawer and two storage compartments. Richly carved, they are adorned with bamboo handles. Their dimensions are 82 cm high x 60 cm wide x 41 cm deep. Imagine waking up in a bedroom steeped in history and luxury, against a backdrop of pristine white and elegant parquet flooring. This bedroom set is much more than just a piece of furniture: it's a true heirloom, promising to enhance your home with its unique character and distinguished presence.
