

An Imari Teapot Decorated With Prunus Branches - Japan, Edo Period, C.1700

820 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 15,8cm

Height : 9,5cm

Description

A molded porcelain teapot with an Imari decoration of prunus branches. The lid features a plum blossom in relief. Japan, 18th century, Edo period (1600-1868), circa 1700 Height: 9.5 cm Length: 15.8 cm This Imari-decorated teapot reflects the strong influence of the Kakiemon workshops, particularly in the use of green in the foliage and the style of the branch paintings. Excellent condition, with slight wear to the enamels in places. More information and photos available upon request.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011