Description
-------------

In white opaline glass and finely chased gilt bronze. The round white opaline glass cup rests on the raised tail of a gilt bronze dolphin, which forms a console. The base, formed from an inverted round white opaline glass cup, rests, at its lower part, on a row of gilt bronze water leaves. The opaline glass has a beautiful, immaculate color. The finely chased bronze is beautifully finished with a matte and burnished gilt. Made in the 1970s. Height: 15.5 cm. Cup diameter: 13 cm. Base diameter: 9.5 cm. Both the opaline glass cup and base are half a centimeter thick. The dolphin is a spiritual guardian offering a sense of security. A symbol of balance and inner peace, it encourages synchronization with the universe. An embodiment of communication, it fosters connection and solidarity. Emanating
