Lively Riverside Landscape - Oil On Canvas - Important 19th Century Gilt Frame

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Description: Oil on canvas depicting a bucolic landscape in the style of the Barbizon School. The composition presents a lively woodland scene by a river, with a moored boat and a figure (fisherman or wood gatherer) lending a human scale to the scene. The palette is dominated by deep greens and ochres, typical of late 19th-century plein air painting. The atmosphere is peaceful and melancholic. The Frame: The canvas is enhanced by a spectacular 19th-century frame in wood and gilt stucco. Richly decorated with scrolling foliage and relief motifs, with a beautiful depth of molding, this frame is a centerpiece in itself and gives the whole a highly decorative ("Grand Siècle") appearance. Condition: Good condition. The paint layer appears sound (a light cleaning of the varnish
