

Art Deco Head Racks

490 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

A wrought iron coat rack, emblematic of the Art Deco style of the 1920s and 30s. This piece is distinguished by its clean, geometric design, blending straight lines and rounded shapes, key characteristics of the movement. The slender structure rests on a solid square base, while the hooks, adorned with stylized motifs, offer both functionality and elegance. The metal's natural patina lends authenticity and a timeless charm, reflecting its era. This coat rack, combining robustness and refinement, represents a fine example of modernist aesthetics applied to everyday objects, perfect for a sophisticated and historically rich interior.
