

Fishing Trip

Description

Early 20th-century enamel on copper, delicately depicting a fishing boat returning from the sea. This handcrafted piece portrays a peaceful maritime scene where colorful sailboats glide across a calm sea beneath a sky dotted with wispy clouds. The enamel on copper technique lends this piece a unique luminosity and depth, enhancing the vibrant hues of the sails and the reflections on the water. Presented in its original, simple wooden frame, this artwork testifies to the technical mastery and appreciation for seascapes characteristic of the period. A decorative object to cherish.
