Description

Elegant pair of Louis XVI style veneered corner cabinets, dating from the early years of the 19th century, of excellent quality and fine craftsmanship.

Made of finely veneered wood, they feature chevron-patterned fronts, subtle inlaid stringing, and tapered legs, all characteristic elements of the Louis XVI style. Elegant lines, harmonious proportions, and careful workmanship.

In very good structural condition, with well-preserved veneer; they require only conservative restoration to enhance the original patina.

Refined and versatile pieces, ideal for classic interiors and for collectors of antique furniture.

Dimensions:

Width 67 cm - Corner depth 47 cm - Height 88
