Description

Small miniature chest of drawers in wood and marble (20th century). This small miniature chest of drawers is made of wood with a herringbone veneer. It opens with two drawers on the front, each adorned with bronze handles and keyhole escutcheons. The piece is topped with a veined marble slab, adding contrast and refinement to the whole. It rests on four straight legs, inspired by the Louis XVI style. 20th century. Good overall condition, with slight signs of age consistent with its age (see photos). On display at Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, 41 rue des Acacias, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.
