Description

A hushed interior scene, captured in a rich and velvety palette. Louis XV armchairs, a red carpet, subdued lighting: everything evokes the elegance of a bygone era. Charles Schwartz captures the atmosphere more than the detail, with a deliberate blur that lends the scene an almost cinematic quality. A French painter active at the turn of the 20th century, he became known for his intimate settings and his taste for enveloping atmospheres. Oil on canvas. Signed lower right. Period carved and gilded wooden frame.
