Description

A charming Provençal pewter shelf, beautifully carved in walnut. Originally intended for displaying pewter, this type of shelf can easily be repurposed today. The front is carved with a large tureen, laurel branches, and small flowers. The uprights and crossbars are generously shaped. It rests on small Louis XV shell feet. The walnut has a superb patina. There is only a small, barely visible V-shaped graft on the back right of the top. A very decorative and original little shelf, easy to place. Dimensions: 47 cm wide x 17 cm deep x 66 cm high.
