Description

Mid-20th-century Caucasian rug in very good condition, measuring 97 cm wide by 110 cm long. This beautiful, finely woven rug is hand-knotted wool on wool. It features alternating three colors along its two selvedges. The decoration is very generous and elegant. These rugs are distinguished by their varied and imaginative geometric patterns. Sometimes, stylized animal figures or geometric, floral, and architectural motifs are found. This piece, of great beauty and delicate design and color, is a small marvel of Caucasian art. It can serve as a decorative floor element, but given its beauty, it can also be used as wall art. This rug has been professionally and ecologically cleaned.
