Art Nouveau Brooch/pendant In Gold, Platinum, Old-cut And Rose-cut Diamonds, Circa 1900

3 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Platinum

Description

An elegant Art Nouveau brooch/pendant, crafted around 1900 in gold and platinum. The design, with its flowing curves and organic lines, perfectly illustrates the naturalistic aesthetic characteristic of this iconic movement of the Belle Époque. The setting is adorned with old-cut diamonds, offering a soft and vibrant light, enhanced by rose-cut diamonds that add finesse and subtlety to the overall effect. A rare and refined piece, a testament to the jewelry-making expertise of the turn of the 20th century, equally captivating worn as a brooch or a pendant.

Dealer

Dael et Grau

Bijoux anciens

Tel : 03 20 39 27 91

3-5 rue Lepelletier

Lille 59800