

Tripod Coffee And Chocolate Pot, 18th Century

285 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Description

A Louis XV period tripod coffee pot/pitcher in silver-plated metal and wrought steel. It features a turned wooden handle on the side, a long fluted spout ending in a drop, and a push-button lid. The forged steel legs are a distinctive feature that makes this piece both aesthetically pleasing and exceptionally sturdy. Total length including handle: 18 cm. Height: 17 cm. Diameter at widest point: 7.5 cm. In excellent condition, the silver plating is of high quality, having been tested several times as the silver test was consistently positive. The metal is thick and robust. Shipping via Colissimo registered mail is EUR15 within France; for other countries, please contact me. Payment by check or bank transfer.
