Description

Large printed cotton panel, suitable for use as a curtain or door panel (late 19th century), featuring a lush design of vibrant rose bouquets against a background of Rococo-style elements. A long border is adorned with a tasseled trim, which has a few minor losses. This particularly decorative piece is made from three 82 cm wide panels and one 37 cm wide panel, totaling 283 cm in width. Condition : This curtain shows no signs of weakness or tears; its structure is in very good condition. There are a few sun-faded areas, contrasting with parts that have received less or no natural light. However, this imperfection does not detract from the quality or charm of this high-quality fabric panel. Professional cleaning was carried out using a specialized program to avoid damaging the materials and colors, and to
