Description

A charming landscape captured in brilliant light. Margueray depicts a village nestled in the hills, bathed in sunlight, with a scene of tranquil life in the foreground: a boat glides on the peaceful waters of a river, highlighting the gentleness of a summer afternoon. The luminous palette, bold brushstrokes, and lively details lend the whole a serene and joyful atmosphere. A bucolic scene full of freshness. A painter active in the 20th century, Margueray distinguished himself with his landscapes in light colors, often inspired by the French countryside and the banks of the Seine. Oil on canvas. Signed lower right. Gilt frame with painted fluting.
