

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

1970s Hollywood Regency Table In The Style Of Charles Hollis Jones

480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Acrylic

Diameter : 120

Height : 73

Description

A 1970s Hollywood Regency table in the style of Charles Hollis Jones, featuring a gilt brass and plexiglass base and an octagonal beveled glass top. Note: a very small chip on the edge of the tabletop (see detailed photo). Dimensions: Height 73 cm, Tabletop diameter 120 cm. Free shipping within the Paris region. Shipping to France and neighboring countries is possible via the cocolis website. Charles Hollis Jones began creating furniture and sculptures at the age of 13. After studying art at UCLA, he began working as a freelance designer. He quickly gained a reputation for his bold and avant-garde designs, using materials such as acrylic and plexiglass to create unique furniture. In the 1960s, Jones became famous for his transparent acrylic furniture designs, which were featured in the

Dealer

Espaces et Formes

Art * Décoration d'intérieurs * Collection

Mobile : +33 769478447

Paris 75018

most prestigious art galleries in New York and Los Angeles. He also worked with celebrities such as Frank Sinatra and Diana Ross, creating custom furniture for their homes. Over the years, Jones expanded his work to include lighting, creating lamps and light fixtures in acrylic and brass. His work is now part of the permanent collections of numerous museums, including the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Smithsonian American Art Museum.