Description

18th century Old Master Drawing Trompe l'Oeil Scene St Andreas Pencil, grey and brown wash, watermark crowned GR, 214 x 187 mm Provenance: private collection, The Netherlands* A fascinating 18th century trompe l'oeil drawing of a mounted 'print' of St Andreas with his cross, protected by a semi-transparent 'sheet', half covering the drawing. Maybe French, maybe German, maybe Dutch. Very amusing and illusionistic effect. Rare piece. Good condition for the age, a few usual minor folds. Shipping in Europe: EUR 25
