Description

We are pleased to present this refined antique Italian chest dating in the 18th century. Crafted from solid walnut, its warm, rich brown color lends it a versatile aesthetic, suitable for both classic and modern interiors. Featuring rich and beautiful hand-carved woodwork, its front decoration features four panels with a central rosette, creating a unique visual touch! The top opens to reveal a large and practical storage compartment. This type of chest was originally intended primarily to store bedding, such as blankets or sheets, and was placed at the foot of the bed. Today, its placement in the home is extremely versatile; it can be useful in any room and become a distinctive element of your decor thanks to its antique charm. Wherever you choose to place it, it will be a splendid addition to your
