

Lacquered Metal Maedate In The Shape Of A Crescent Moon - Komayada Clan - Edo Period: 1603 - 1

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Width : 17,5 cm.

Height : 16 cm.

Description

JAPAN - Edo Period (1603-1868). Lacquered metal maedate in the shape of a crescent moon, its points facing upwards. The crescent is centered with a disc decorated with the Koyamada clan mon in maki-e gilt lacquer. Dimensions: 16 x 17.5 cm. Sold with its stand. Dimensions with stand: 16 x 15 x 7 cm. Notes: The Koyamada clan (コヤマダ氏, Koyamada-shi) was a Japanese clan headquartered in the Satsuma Domain. This domain was one of the most powerful during the Edo period and played a major role in the Meiji Restoration and the subsequent Meiji government.

Dealer

ANTIQUES YF

Arts du samurai et Arts du Japon

Mobile : 0608649576

4 allée de pomone

Gressy 77410