Pair Of Large Sculpted Angels In A Sheath - 19th Century

4 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

An important pair of carved and polychrome wooden angels, forming painted wooden cases imitating marble. Likely originating from an interior design, these angels are carved on three sides and intended to be positioned with their backs to a wall. They would have supported a mezzanine or other decorative element.
19th-century work. Good condition; some wear and minor losses to the polychromy. Height: 203 cm. Width: 41.5 cm. Depth: 45 cm.
