Description

Oil on cardboard by Hippolyte Léty, depicting a landscape at dusk in Saint Romain Ile Barlet, near Vienne. Signed lower left. Inscribed on the back "Twilight at Saint Romain Ile Barlet," and dated October 1938. Good condition. Painting dimensions : 15 x 10 cm. Frame dimensions : 26 x 21 cm. Hippolyte Léty was born on January 24, 1878, in Vienne, Isère. Despite a career as a professor at the École des Beaux-Arts in Tourcoing, in the North, the artist remained very attached to Isère, where he retired. His training was of the highest caliber; From his early training with Antoine-Christian Zacharie, known as Tony Zac (1819-1899), to his studies with Alexandre François Bonnardel (1867-1942) at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyon, and finally in Paris under Luc-Olivier Merson (1846-1920), Léon Bonnat
