Description

A beautiful and unusual solid silver bracelet made in the early 20th century. It is composed of six solid silver discs enameled in black, highlighted by four fine chains. This particularly supple bracelet is very comfortable to wear. It opens and closes easily yet securely thanks to a small clasp. An Art Deco piece, circa 1920. Please note: this bracelet is in good overall condition. Some of the motifs are slightly worn. It has a lovely patina but could benefit from further cleaning for a shinier finish. Please examine the photos carefully.
