Description

If you are looking for a work of art that embodies neoclassical elegance and the timeless charm of Italian history, this "19th-century Italian Capital with Putti" is the ideal choice to enhance your interiors.Crafted from high-quality plaster expertly painted to resemble terracotta, this piece stands out for its superior sculptural quality. The highlights are the refined winged putti, gracefully modeled to appear as if they are naturally supporting the upper shelf. With substantial dimensions of 50x50 cm and a height of 70 cm, this capital serves as a perfect pedestal for marble busts, precious vases, or as a standalone architectural element with a strong visual presence.The work is in excellent condition with a beautiful patina, preserving that authentic character that only minimal signs of age can
