Description

Large Persian brass vase with repoussé floral and animal decoration, Qajar period, late 19th century. Persia (modern-day Iran) was the cradle of Arab-Persian civilization from 552 BC until 1979. Throughout the centuries, this empire radiated its history, its geopolitical culture, and its craftsmanship, particularly in copper, brass, and so-called "Islamic" metals. This vase, dating from the late 19th century, is a testament to this cultural and artisanal wealth. The baluster-shaped vase is adorned with hammered repoussé motifs of birds, local fauna, and flora, creating a narrative along its body. Purely decorative, this vase was intended for luxurious interiors, to hold flowers and incense. Fast and careful shipping to France, Europe, and worldwide. Dimensions -> Height : 40 cm -> Inner diameter of the neck : 6
