Description

Refined clock made of finely carved walnut and mahogany, with fruitwood inlays. The clock features a classic American "banjo" design, based on the Seth Thomas or New Haven model. Its elegance lies in the case inlays, featuring geometric and plant-like decorations, while the lower panel features a landscape. The clock features a white dial with Arabic numerals and iron hands. The movement is German and works. This is a tasteful and refined wall clock, capable of adding a touch of class and design to any space. American manufacture, early 20th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 90 x 23 x 8cm
