Description

Carved and gilded wooden mirror. French work. Circa 1870. Dimensions Height 128 cm, Width 80 cm. Description A superb mirror with flowing lines typical of the Second Empire, adorned with a refined decoration of acanthus leaves, scrolls, and rocaille shells, inspired by the Louis XV style and reinterpreted with the decorative richness characteristic of the 19th century. The original gilding, in very good condition, enhances the relief of the decoration and gives the whole an elegant luminosity. The finely pierced pediment perfectly illustrates the balance between opulence and refinement characteristic of the decorative taste of the reign of Napoleon III. This type of mirror once graced the drawing rooms of the bourgeoisie and private mansions of the second half of the 19th century, bringing brilliance and
