Description

Watercolor over pencil lines depicting a group of villas in Piquey, executed around 1916 by André Lhote. The fresh and luminous palette combines soft greens, golden ochres, and nuanced blues in a structured composition characteristic of the artist's Cubist explorations during this period. The architecture is rendered in geometric volumes, enlivened by a play of hatching and constructive lines. In the foreground, two stylized figures animate the scene. Signed lower left. Certificate issued by Jean Guin, nephew of the artist André Lhote. Dimensions (visible): Length: 92 cm Height: 78 cm.
